Title: Questmasters The Relic!

Author: Tiffany Case

THE RELIC
Sunday 22nd. 18:00 EST Nujelm Theater in Felucca

An ancient evil force has laid dormant for hundreds of years. This powerful entity's reign of terror was ended by the Holy Knights who dismembered him and scattered his remains in every corner of the land. In The Relic a group of devoted followers, the Keepers of the Seven Deaths, will try to bring this foul creature back among the living, while the descendants of the Holy Knights will rise to battle evil and to prevent the sect from achieving its gruesome goal.

Who will you side with?
Good or Evil? This is a teamed event that mostly relies on PvP and will be entirely held in Felucca.
Participants will be divided into two teams.
You may choose your camp: the Holy Knights (Good) or the Keepers of the Seven Deaths (Evil).
Only murderers (red characters) may join the Keepers of the Seven Deaths so that fights may be held without issues of giving counts on either side.

Each side will be given a fortress within which all recovered pieces of the Relic must be placed in the temple room of the fortress. That room must be protected at all cost on both sides. Your mission is thus as follows:

1. Locate and recover all pieces of the Relic before the opposing team.
2. Protect the pieces you have managed to bring back to your temple.
3. Steal from the opposing team any parts of the relics they may have captured first.
4. Perform the ritual (of banishment for the Knights and of revival for the Keepers)

The gathering for this event will be done in Nujel'm Theater in Felucca. The rules will be read at 5:30 PM Eastern.
